

Top 5 Elevator Halls

This week we dive into other-worldly elevator halls where guests will find themselves lost in the attractiveness of their surroundings.

Picture this: you're on the first floor of a hundred-storey building and you're waiting for the elevator to get through fifty stories. You're staring at the floor, checking your phone, looking at anything that will make time go faster. In this week's top 5 selection of elevator halls, we explore outstanding designs that make time fly.

Venture into the Capella Hanoi's art deco style mural evoking the history of Vietnam.

Amuse yourself with fascinating colourful artworks at the Whitby Hotel.

Feel the residential character of The Westin Perth with its distinctive combinations of the raw and refined and the urban and natural.

Become an actor in the "Backstage on stage" theatrical concept of the Hotel Am Konzerthaus Vienna MGallery.

Explore sophisticated art pieces inspired by Taoism at the Holiday Inn Resort Maoshan Hot-Spring, located near the historical site of the most important Taoist temples and monasteries in China.

"I was thrilled to witness the very start of TOPHOTELDESIGN and see it grow as an important and extremely complete Database for astonishing architecture and design. It allows designers and design firms to showcase their work of course, but it has been an amazing tool for research, comparing design ideas and learning from the market. The work of the TOPHOTELDESIGN team in gathering the information has been incredible."

"TOPHOTELDESIGN is an intelligent and effective database curation opportunity that the hotel design industry has been waiting for. An infinite pool of professionally curated images of select international hotel projects, each one provided with all the details and, above all, always with the branding of the designer. The benefits of TOPHOTELDESIGN, especially the unlimited creation of your own albums will make it an indispensable tool!"
